SCHOOL SONG

W.F. Marshall (altered)

Sing the good old Royal song, wherever you may go,
Sing of crown and castle and an ancient date below,
Sing it with a chorus, so that all the world may know
We learned the holy Latin in Dungannon.

Hurrah! Hurrah! Dungannon wears the crown,
Hurrah! Hurrah! The castle and the crown,
When Derry was a village and Belfast a little town,
We learned the holy Latin in Dungannon.

James the First of England sat in purple on his throne
When a dusty postboy brought the message from Tyrone
From his loyal planters who were making woeful moan
And craved the holy Latin in Dungannon.

They'll wear Dungannon's castle with a crown above, to show
I'll establish it forever as a Royal School, and so
My citizens will bless me, and their children will go
And learn the holy Latin in Dungannon.

By and by they'll bigger be, and learn to play the game,
To fight their battle fairly, which is the noblest fame,
And into adults mould them, and all of them proclaim
There's more than holy Latin in Dungannon.

Years have fled – four hundred, we've a shield without a stain,
RSD for ever! Sing with all your might and main.
Lift it now, go lift it till he hears it – Niculsayn,
Who learned the holy Latin in Dungannon.

Glory to the good old school beside Dungannon town!
Glory to the noble king, and fair be his renown!
And glory everlasting be with all who wore her crown
And learned the holy Latin in Dungannon.

Hymn

(All Standing)

Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

1. Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land.
I am weak, but Thou art mighty;
Hold me with Thy powerful hand.
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven,
Feed me now and evermore;
Feed me now and evermore.
2. Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through.
Strong deliverer, strong deliverer,
Be Thou still my Strength and Shield.
Be Thou still my Strength and Shield.
3. When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side.
Songs and praises, songs and praises,
I will ever give to Thee;
I will ever give to Thee.

P. Williams
